

Big Wave Tank Kit to knit — $38.80-$54.80

You'll be making waves on and off the beach in this season-spanning tank that knits up in a jiffy. Famed sweater designer Heidi Kirrmaier has constructed it like a top-down raglan but the sleeves are cut short to form the straps. Eyelet details add interest to the neckline and along the sides of its gentle A-line body, so flattering to a variety of shapes. Suggested needle size: US 9 (32").

Merchandising Manager Linda Schumacher has selected the ideal yarn for this kit — springy, fun-to-knit-with Plymouth Worsted Merino Superwash, shown below in just some of the many colors we carry. As its name implies, this yarn is easy care — machine wash, gentle cycle, and tumble dry low. Depending on size, you'll need only 2 to 3 hanks to make your top.

Kit includes printed pattern and yarn; depending on the size you choose, your kit will cost $38.80-$54.80 plus tax. Or—if you'd like to try this pattern with different yarns—we can help you put together a custom kit (price will vary depending on yarn selected).
